

Start A New Session

The user would first go to the menu page, in which the first option on the menu is to start a new session, then the MainWindow will display the new active session to record the logs.

