

Power ON

The device is by default turned off. The user then presses the power button to turn device on.

